The Christian Church (Disciples of Christ) in Northern California-Nevada (CCNCN) is about to offer Healthy Boundary Training 101. This training is offered ONLY ONCE ANNUALLY!

It is a required basic course for newly relocated, newly licensed or newly ordained ministers with standing in the CCNCN.

According to our records and the Regional Board policy concerning HBT101, this is a course which you need to take. If we are incorrect, please forgive and alert us to our error.

Enclosed is the registration form for this course. Please note the deadline for registration.

Thanks for your attention to this matter.

Tom Harshman

Chair, Recognition and Standing Committee

Ben Bohren.

Regional Minister-President

PS. This HBT101 is not to be confused with the Healthy Boundary Training-Cultural Competency Course which will be offered in 2011. This is part of the on-going HBT training and ALL ordained and licensed Disciples clergy will be required to attend one of several sessions provided at different locations around the Region.

The course will cover several areas including: The importance of communication, basic professional boundaries, fluid boundaries, sexual boundaries, and self-care. This course is designed to be interactive and as enjoyable. We'll be using video clips from television shows such as The Simpsons and films including Keeping the Faith.

DEADLINE FOR REGISTRATION WITH PAYMENT IS SEPTEMBER 3, 2010

Rev. Jesse Kearns has served as pastor of First Christian Church (Disciples of Christ) in Chico since December, 2007. Prior to that, Jesse was on Regional Staff in Virginia where his primary ministries involved Outdoor Ministry, Regional Youth Ministry, and Men's Ministry. Among his "other duties pertaining to the ministry of the Region," he taught clergy boundaries and boundaries for camps and volunteers. Jesse is currently working on a doctorate of ministry through Lexington Theological Seminary.
